

Indiana Conservation Officer's Organization, Inc.

Application for Associate Membership

Please send your completed membership application form along with your $25 payment

Show your support of the Indiana's Conservation Officers by becoming an Associate Member. The ICOO was established as a voice for the active and retired conservation law enforcement offices of the Indiana Department of Natural Resources Division of Law Enforcement. The organization strives to keep the natural resources and outdoor recreation opportunities, and conservation law enforcement. The organization is a registered, private, non-profit group that is not supported or funded by state or federal tax revenues.

If you would like to assist the Indiana Conservation Officer's Organization as it moves in the positive direction the public so greatly desires, you can join ICOO as an associate member. Upon receipt of your $25 membership fee, we will send you an organization window sticker, license plate, and three (3) magazines a year.

The new magazine is to be published beginning April 2010.
